

AUTHOR VISIT TO ST MARY'S – Y3 TO Y6

On Monday 5th June we have an author visiting Y3-Y6. Her name is Louie Stowell and she is the writer of the Loki series of books.

About the book

Loki is BACK in the third doodle-packed diary in the number one best-selling series.

When Heimdall and Hyrrokkin abandon their "children" to go on holiday, Odin sends Baldur – Thor's half-brother and god of making Loki look bad – to babysit. As Baldur and Thor bond, Loki's attempts to prove he's good start getting a bit desperate. After the drama teacher casts him as the villain in the school play, Loki starts to wonder whether there's any point in being good when everyone seems convinced of his villainy. That is until he discovers a rather unusual ring among the costumes and props. A ring that looks suspiciously like the cursed ring of Andvari, one that promises Loki the world if only he gives in to his deepest, darkest desires...

- "Forget Thor, it's Louie who really brings the thunder with this book. Action-packed, smart and very, very funny." – Rob Biddulph
- "Punchy, fast-paced and blimmin' brilliant." – Laura Ellen Anderson
- "This book is extremely funny, highly original and packed with quirky doodles." – Nadia Shireen
- "[...] a sheer delight [...] as accessible and readable as Wimpy Kid but just so much smarter and tons more fun" – Piers Torday

About the author

Louie Stowell started her career writing carefully-researched books about space, ancient Egypt, politics and science but eventually lapsed into just making stuff up. She has written fiction for 8–12 (Nosy Crow and Walker Books US), but Loki: A Bad God's Guide to Being Good is her first project as both author and illustrator, inspired by her research into Norse myths. Louie writes (and draws) full time in London, where she lives with her wife Karen, her dog Buffy and a creepy puppet that is probably cursed.
